MLA Citation Style

The information on this handout is derived from the 8th edition of the MLA Handbook.

Internal Citation
When incorporating information into a research paper which is directly derived from another source, it is necessary to insert a parenthetical reference within the body of the paper indicating the author's last name and the page number. For more examples, the MLA Handbook, 8th edition.

Author's Name in Text:
According to Naomi Baron, reading is “just half of literacy. The other half is writing” (194).

Author's Name in Reference:
Reading is “just half of literacy. The other half is writing” (Baron 194).

Works Cited
The Works Cited list should appear as a separate page at the end of the paper, numbered as though it were a page in the paper. Double-space between and within entries. Entries should be alphabetized by first word of entry. Second and subsequent lines in each entry should be indented ½ inch.

Electronic Sources (for more examples, see the MLA Handbook, 8th ed.)
